If you're a single man under the age of 35 you probably want to know what the ladies are looking for on an online dating site. A guy who had a few drinks and later got pulled over for buzzed driving. See, that can cost you around $10,000 in fines, legal fees and increased insurance rates and doesn't a guy whose back living with his parents, but calls them my roommates just scream mister right. Buzzed, busted and broke. Because buzzed driving is drunk driving. Brought to you by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and the AD Council.

AD Council: Buzzed Driving Prevention/Attention Men

Fifteen (15) One Minute Public Service Announcements Aired: 07/15/15 – 07/31/15
(Monday – Sunday 6AM – 12AM)

Attention men under the age of 35. You know what really impresses the ladies? When a guy has a few drinks and later gets pulled over for buzzed driving. That can cost you around $10,000 in fines, legal fees and increased insurance rates. There goes let's grab dinner and movie. Oh I know you drive more carefully when you're buzzed. You've proven that hundreds of times. A woman admires that kind of confidence and you've practiced how to speak if a cop does pull you over. Slowly, clearly and politely like: good evening officer. A woman admires that kind of foresight. And what woman doesn't find it adorable that you call it buzzed even though the law calls it drunk. You can kiss $10,000 goodbye along with any chance of having a girlfriend. Because nothing says I'm a catch more than a guy who lives in his parent's basement and calls it my place. Buzzed, busted and broke. Because buzzed driving is drunk driving. A message from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) and the AD Council.

Issue – Bullying statistics are staggering, more than 80% of high school students in the U.S. reporting that they witness bullying at least once a week. Statistics also show that nearly 13 million—more than 1 in 4 children—experience some form of bullying per year. Whether, it is as the bully, bullied and /or both. Bullying is growing concern for parents, but research has shown that if the parent talks to their children about bullying, their children are more likely to take actions against bullying.

AD Council:

Bullying Prevention/Learning

Thirteen (13) One Minute Public Service Announcements Aired: 08/14/2015 – 08/31/2015
(Monday – Sunday 7PM – 12AM)

Today in school I learned a lot. In chemistry I learned that no one likes me. In English I learned that I'm disgusting and in Physics I learned that I'm a loser. Today in school I learned that I'm ugly and I'm useless. And in gym I learned that I'm pathetic and a joke. In History I learned that I'm trash. Today in school I learned that I have no friends. In English I learned that I make people sick. And at lunch I learned that I sit on my own because I smell. In chemistry I learned that nobody likes me. In Biology I learned that I'm fat and stupid. And in math I learned that I'm trash. The only thing I didn't learn in school today...The only thing I didn't learn today...The only thing I didn't learn is why no one ever helps. Kids witness bullying every day, they want to help, but they don't know how. Teach them how to stop bullying and be more than a bystander at stopbullying.gov. A message from the AD Council.

I'm a little tea pot short and stout. Here is my handle and here is my spout. No dad, like this. When I get all steamed up then I shout. Tip me over and pour me out. This is WWE Superstar Roman Reins. The smallest moment can have the biggest impact on a child's life. Take time to be a dad today. Visit fatherhood.gov. Brought to you by U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the Ad Council.
